

Inclusion Contact: P&G The Talk

Everyday, parents have conversations with their children about the harsh realities of the society we live in. These conversations force difficult questions about equality, justice, prejudice, and racism.

Watch The Talk.

Video length – 2:09

Discussion

- What underlying issues were addressed in the commercial?
- How does knowing these conversations happen help you better empathize with African-American mothers?